(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 11.—General Carranza through Consul Silliman, has asked the American government for permission to send Mexican troops across the border and into the United States in pursuit of bandits.

Consul Silliman transmitted the following communication dated at Guadalajara, March 10, which was handed to him by Jesus Acuna, Carranza's minister of foreign affairs.

It is a reply to the American government's representations for permission to pursue the Villa bandits with American forces. "In due reply to your courteous note, dated yesterday and transmitted today, through Mr. John W. Belt, (Silliman's secretary), I have the honor to inform you that having brought the above note to the attention of the first chief of the constitutional army and depositories of the executive power of Mexico, he has directed me to say to you, to the end that you may, in turn, transmit it to the department of state of the American government that he learned with regret of the lamentable incident which occurred in the town of Columbus, N. M., on account of the assaults suffered yesterday from the bandits led by Francisco Villa.

"That, although there has been a competent number of forces in the state of Chihuahua to re-establish order and to afford protection to nationals and foreigners, ever since Francisco Villa appeared in the mountains of the state at the request of the Governor of the state and of the constitutional consul in El Paso, Texas, the first chief ordered, the timely departure of 2500 men commanded by General Luis Gutierrez with instructions to actively pursue the bandits who had just crossed the line into American territory which they undoubtedly did, compelled by the tenacious pursuit of the above mentioned forces.

"The above lamentable incident is similar to the incursions which were made in the states of Sonora and Chihuahua by Indians from the reservations of the government of the United States. Incursions into the state of Sonora occurred more or less about the year 1880 when Geronimo, the Indian chief who died not many years ago in Fort Mound, Ala. led a numerous horde and invaded a part of the north of state of Sonora, committing many murders and depredations of life and property of Mexican families, until after a long and tenacious chase by American and Mexican forces the band of marauders was annihilated and its chief was captured.

"The incursion into Chihuahua led by the Indian chief, Victoria, commanding about 800 Indians took place between the years 1884 and 1886. Then the bands of marauders committing also many crimes went into the country as far as the villages of Teolochic or Trescastillos, very near the capital of Chihuahua and during the first normal encounter between them and Mexican forces, after having lost their chief they were dispersed.

"On these two occasions through an agreement between the governments of the United States and Mexico, it was decided that the armed forces of one and the other country might freely cross from the territory of one to the other in pursuit and for the purpose of punishing the above bands of marauders.

"Recalling these incidents and the good results for both countries on account of the above agreement the government presided over by the first chief is anxious to exterminate with the least possible time the horde led by Francisco Villa, who had been recently placed beyond the law and to capture him. Apply condign punishment, applies to you as confidential agent and addresses the government of the United States request the necessary permission for Mexican forces to cross into American territory if the incursion which took place in Columbus should, unfortunately be repeated in any other point of the boundary line. The Mexican government would greatly appreciate a prompt and favorable reply from the government of the United States.

"Please accept, Mr. Confidential Agent, the assurances of my high consideration.

(Signed)
"Jesus Acuna,
Secretary in charge of the department of foreign affairs."

News of World War.

The second great effort in the Verdun drive apparently is nearing its close. The latest German attacks have been directed at comparatively small sections of the front east and west of the Meuse. Military opinion in France is that the great battle is at an end.

In Paris it is believed the diminishing intensity of the German attacks is influenced by the heavy losses the assailants are said to have sustained, but a Berlin dispatch reports it is believed there that the German merchantmen interned in relatively a few thousands.

The German admiralty announces that on Thursday German seaplanes bombarded a squadron of one Russian battleship and five destroyers, as well as several merchant ships in the Black sea off the Bulgarian coast.

The Portuguese cabinet has resigned to give place to a national defense cabinet, which has been empowered by parliament to take all measures necessitated by Germany's declaration of war. The Portuguese foreign minister revealed the fact that it was at the request of Great Britain that Portugal seized the German merchantmen interned in her ports, which was the immediate cause of Germany's declaration of war.

CAPTURE RHEIMS POSITION.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, March 11, via London, 3:35 p. m.—The capture of French positions 1400 yards wide and about two-thirds of a mile deep south of Ville-aux-Bois, near Rheims, was announced today by the war office.

VIOLENT FIGHTING.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, March 11, 2:30 p. m.—There is still violent fighting for the possession of the fort at Vaux, according to announcement of the French war office this afternoon.

The Germans have made progress along the slopes leading to this position but they have not reached the barbed wire entanglement in front of the fort.

The Germans hold some houses in the eastern part of the village of Vaux, while the French are still in possession of the western portion of the town.

CABINET RESIGNS.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Lisbon, Portugal, March 11, via Paris, 8:45 a. m.—The Portuguese cabinet has resigned to give place to a national defense government which is now being formed.

In parliament yesterday, Dr. Augusto Soares, foreign minister of the retiring cabinet, read the notes exchanged between Germany and Portugal and also a note from Great Britain requesting the Portuguese government in view of the alliance between these nations to seize German ships in Portuguese ports.

Athens, March 10, via London, March 10.—On Wednesday a German aeroplane coming from the coast of Asia Minor, flew over the island of Samos, which lies 42 miles to the southwest of Smyrna and threw bombs at British ships in the harbor there without hitting any of them. The aeroplane returned to Asia Minor.

BOMBARDED RUSSIAN FLEET.
(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 11.—An official German communication, according to Central News dispatch from Amsterdam, says that on Thursday morning German seaplanes dropped bombs on a Russian squadron of one battleship and five destroyers and on several Russian merchant ships in the Black Sea near Kali Akra Cape on the coast of Bulgaria. It was observed that some of the destroyers were hit. Despite the heavy shelling from the Russian warships, the communication adds, the seaplanes returned safely.

NEWARK ROUTE IS ACCEPTED FOR HIGHWAY

CITY'S CLAIM PUSHED SO WELL THAT LOCAL ROUTE IS CHOSEN

LANCASTER JOINS NEWARK AND COSHOCTON AFTER SEEING STRENGTH OF NEWARK'S CLAIM FOR PREFERENCE.

Newark is to be on the Pike's Peak Ocean to Ocean Highway. The Newark delegation at the meeting held at the Southern hotel at Columbus yesterday afternoon presented facts that impressed the six representatives from counties between Columbus and Indianapolis, and who were sitting as a court in the matter, that the northern route was the most feasible.

The northern route follows Broad street out of Columbus through Granville, then over the concrete road through this city, out the Newark and Zanesville pike through Hanover to one-fourth mile below Boston, then turning north goes through Black Run, thence to Dresden, through Trinway to Coshocton, then on to Steubenville, where the Ohio river is crossed and from there in to Pittsburgh.

The local board of trade is deserving of much credit for taking up the matter at its last meeting and arranging for a delegation to go to Columbus and present the claims of the northern route. Those who went from this city yesterday were Attorney A. A. Stasel, E. M. Baughner, W. M. Morgan, W. C. Wells, Wesley Montgomery, Benj. Montgomery, George Hermann, David Taylor, Geo. B. Sprague, R. B. White, J. Howard Jones, Benj. Jones, David C. Metz, Attorney W. D. Fulton and W. H. Smith.

There were over 200 enthusiastic delegates at the meeting from the three routes which were under consideration. Lancaster urged their claims to recognition asking that the route go through their city then via of Somerset and Zanesville, taking up the National road at that place.

General Brown of Zanesville, spoke in favor of having the proposed highway follow the National road. Several others also spoke for the route of the northern route.

A. A. Stasel of this city spoke in favor of the northern route. Mr. Stasel presented facts in favor of that route that could not be disputed. He showed where it was twenty miles nearer to Pittsburgh over that route than via of the National road out of Columbus. There is also 25 miles of brick roadway completed over the northern route and two stretches of improved pikes of sixteen miles each. Mr. Stasel also stated that the great floods of 1913 had not done any damage to the northern route through Licking county. He then informed the Zanesville delegation that they could jump in their machines and come to Newark and follow the northern route into Pittsburgh, and at the same time save a distance of twenty miles over the route that they were advocating.

General Funston To Have Full Authority In Mexican Operation

General Funston Confirms Death of Pablo Lopez, Chief Lieutenant of Bandit Leader—Carranza's Request to Move His Troops Across Border Regarded As Favorable to President's Action—American Expedition Described As Defensive One—Washington Thinks Villa's Planned Attack On Mormons Abandoned.

(Associated Press Telegram)
San Antonio, Tex., March 11.—Major Frederick Funston announced today that while he will have direction of military affairs along the Mexican border the expedition into Mexico to capture Francisco Villa will be in charge of Brigadier General.

Gen. Funston said the name of the commanding officer would be given out at Washington.

The full aero squadron stationed here will be dispatched with the expedition.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 11.—Latest reports of the whereabouts of General Villa say he reached Ascension, south of Palomas, some time yesterday with three hundred followers after his flight following the attack on Columbus. This information reached here today in a message to the Carranza embassy from Consul Andres Garcia at El Paso.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 11.—Instructions conveying full authority to General Funston to dispatch a defensive expedition into Mexico in pursuit of Villa and his bandits are today in General Funston's hands. Secretary Baker announced that full discretion as to the number of men to be used and the route to be followed has been left with General Funston.

Secretary Baker specifically referred to the expedition as "defensive" in line with the administration's policy of regarding its action as one to repel invasion.

No definite announcement was made at the war department but it was generally understood that Brigadier General John J. Pershing will command the principal column of American troops in the pursuit of Villa. Major General Funston retaining command of the general operations which it is expected will involve the use of three or more columns.

No American troops had crossed the border this morning so far as the war department was advised. Many dispatches were received from General Funston however, informing the department as to the disposition he was making of his forces at strategic points.

Secretary Baker said that whatever reinforcements General Funston might require, in addition to the expeditionary force would be promptly furnished. He added that the war department had been deluged with letters from individuals and organizations offering service of volunteers.

There was at present, Secretary Baker said, no need for summoning volunteers to the colors, although the patriotic spirit behind the offer of the department was not advised this morning as to whether General Funston would lead the expeditionary force in person.

General Funston confirmed today officially the killing of Pablo Lopez, Villa's chief lieutenant, during the raid on Columbus and also the report that Lopez commanded the bandits who murdered nearly a score of Americans at Santa Ysabel.

General Funston also confirmed the report that 400 troops had reached Palomas, six miles south of Columbus, to join in the pursuit of Villa.

A total of fifty-seven dead Mexicans have been found in and about Columbus, General Funston reported.

General Funston said the effectiveness of the fire of the American troops during the engagement was splendid.

Secretary Baker has suggested to General Funston that the army aero squadron now at San Antonio be employed fully in connection with the pursuit of the Villa bandits.

LOOKS FAVORABLE.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 11.—While American troops are preparing to move across the Mexican border to exterminate the Villa bandits, General Carranza in an official communication delivered through Consul Silliman has asked the United States for permission to send his troops in pursuit of outlaws.

Administration officials regard General Carranza's proposal as favorable. It seems to indicate that he will not protest against American troops on Mexican soil as had been feared. Practically such a reciprocal arrangement probably never will result in a single Carranza soldier crossing the line as the possibility of bandits taking refuge in American territory is considered remote.

It is realized that such an arrangement, however, would go far to satisfy Carranza and permit him to comply with popular sentiment in Mexico.

There was no intimation early today how the proposal would be received but it is known that the administration realizes the necessity of avoiding a breach with Carranza, if the Mexican situation is not to grow into the status of armed intervention.

Secretary Baker today referred to the American expedition as a "defensive one." This was regarded as a significant indication of the administration's policy to make it clear that it is proceeding with scrupulous regard for the sovereignty of Mexico and entirely in aid of the constituted authority. Up to noon today no American troops actually had crossed so far as was known here and it was believed none would start moving before night. All arrangements are being left in the hands of Major General Funston.

Villa was today reported moving southwest with not more than 300 men. Last night's report gave his force as 3,000 but that is believed to include sympathizers in his territory. By his movements southeast, it was thought a threatened attack on the American Mormon colony at Casas Grandes had passed for the present.

MORMONS IN DANGER.
(Associated Press Telegram)
El Paso, Texas, March 11.—The position of the 500 members of the Mormon farming colony in the Casas Grandes district, Chihuahua, 158 miles by train from El Paso, critical as it was in the first place, was further menacing today by the presence of Francisco Villa with a band of 300 followers over which they must travel to the American frontier.

Carranza guards from Chihuahua City are expected to accompany a trainload of refugees due at Casas Grandes for the north early today. In El Paso hope for the escape of the Mormons is based largely upon the unverified rumor that Villa is short of ammunition.

Although only 300 men are reported to be with him at La Ascension, Villa is said to have a force of 2,000 in that region.

The arrest of a number of well known Villa agents by the El Paso police early today included a general who was trying to buy arms in a gunstore, a colonel who was found in the general's home, an alleged spy with pencilled maps of Mexican railways in his pocket.

Constitution, a local Mexican paper, has been suspended by the police and all editions seized because of an inflammatory article against the United States. The military authorities at Fort Bliss received word that a large quantity of rifle munition was taken from a place of concealment in the Mexican quarter early today and placed in a wagon train presumably bound for Villa's camp. As the wagons could not have crossed the international bridge, the pursuit of the soldiers in automobiles took place on the road that follows the boundary on the American side. No trace of the ammunition has yet been found.

Horse racing still goes on in Juarez, but the attendance from the El Paso side is less than half the normal. At night heavy guards are placed on patrol along the boundary and at the smelter, the light plant and others points open to attack.

FACE MURDER CHARGE.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, N. M., March 11.—Seven wounded Villa soldiers captured by Colonel H. J. Stocum's troops of the Thirtieth United States Cavalry in Thursday's battle here will be charged with murder for the killing of the seven American soldiers slain in the fight, according to an announcement today by E. B. Stone, special agent of the department of justice. The prisoners include a box twelve years old and two officers.

Stone said he would confer today with Sumners Burkhardt, United States attorney at El Paso, and (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4.)

MRS. BRONNY, 89, DEAD; FAMILY IS LONG LIVED

When death claimed Mrs. John Bronny aged 89 years, Saturday morning at her home in 35 German street it robbed a family noted for its longevity of one of its members. With Mrs. Bronny at the time of her death were her husband, two sisters and a brother all of whom are over 80 years old.

Even then natural illness did not cause Mrs. Bronny's death as she broke her hip in a fall a week ago. Thursday, when she fell at her home in falling she overturned a kettle of scalding water and was also so seriously burned, that the shock of the accident proved too great for her advanced years.

The deceased was born July 2, 1827, at Moore's Corners near Kirkersville. Her husband is well known over the city, having sold pretzels for a number of years. She is survived by her husband, two sisters, Mrs. Christina Alspach of Columbus and Mrs. Matilda Shrader of Summit street, and one brother, George Moore of Mechanicsburg.

Thirty years ago Mrs. Bronny united with the Disciple church and she has been ever a loyal and faithful member. She was an interested worker and her first consideration was for others and to forget herself. Her life, made up of faith and charity was truly a Christian one.

The funeral services will be held on Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Central Church of Christ, Rev. W. D. Ward officiating and interment will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

States district attorney of New Mexico, and that the charges probably would name Francisco Villa, the bandit chief who led the raid on Columbus.

Stone added it was probable that similar charges of murder would be filed against the prisoners in the state courts of New Mexico in connection with the killing of nine civilians of the bandit raiders.

Pablo Sanchez arrested while signaling Mexicans across the border yesterday and held as a spy, will be charged with aiding an enemy while on the soil of the United States.

RAID IN ARIZONA

(Associated Press Telegram)
Douglas, Ariz., March 11.—Further reports today of the raid last night on American ranches south of Osborn Junction, Ariz. stated that a command of Carranza soldiers who had been drinking were engaged for the night near Osborn.

Wills on the way from Naco, Sonora to Agua Prieta, Sonora. They amused themselves by robbing cattle and horses belonging to the American ranchers, whose property extended on both sides of the international boundary.

Several horses and cattle ranging in Arizona were roped and dragged across the border. Other livestock which was roped and which the soldiers were unable to get across the border was shot on Arizona soil. The Mexicans did not cross the line themselves.

Three ranchers were said to have been fired upon by a number of Mexicans and had narrow escapes but none was injured.

WOMAN HELD
DAYS BY VILLA

El Paso, March 11.—Mrs. Maude Hayke Wright the American woman who rode nine days with the Villa troops prior to the raid on Columbus, N. M., is here today awaiting the arrival of her baby, which was taken from her and given to a Mexican family at their home near Pearson, Mexico. The baby is safe and she expects it to be brought to her today or tomorrow. Her husband was killed by the bandits.

Mrs. Wright retold her story of the nine-day trip with the bandits as though it were commonplace. She had suffered so much that she had apparently lost all sense of fear.

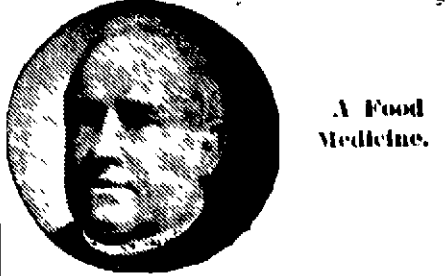

Because she suffered in silence and held herself aloof, she was called "La Reina" Queen of the Villistas by the troops. Because she proved able to withstand hardships better than his own men, Villa promised he would release her after he had sacked Columbus. He also agreed to give her $100 in gold, and a permit to travel unmolested throughout any part of Villa territory.

"Villa only talked to me twice," Mrs. Wright said. "I avoided talking with him because he would have thought I admired him and would have forced me to accompany him. He told his officers how he would wipe out the town of Columbus, and then when the United States tried to invade the Mexican territory, Germany and Japan would step in to interfere. Villa believed this, finally. I have overheard him make such remarks from time to time. Whether or not some agents of these two countries are making him believe this, or whether it is an idea which came to him, I do not know. But he is convinced that he will be assisted in the fight he has started.

"How I wanted to escape to tell the people of Columbus about the attack. But I was watched all the time, until I was released at Columbus."

According to the plan, Governor Hatfield is to name one member of a committee to take charge of the matter and commercial organization will name the other two.

NEWARK ROUTE
James Lauraster announced that they withdrew their claims in favor of the northern route and the movement was the signal for great cheering on the part of the northern route advocates.

Ben B. Jones, clerk of the board of county commissioners next spoke in favor of the route through this city and imparted some road information to the assembled delegates that greatly enhanced Newark's chances.

General Brown was then allowed to speak in rebuttal and he in turn was answered by Mr. Stasel. The jury then retired and after a half hour's deliberation announced that they had decided in favor of the Northern route and the great continental highway will pass through this city.

The Pike's Peak Ocean-to-Ocean route is laid out between San Francisco and New York. The most of the western road has been completed and a great deal of the route between Pittsburgh and New York is completed. When the highway shall finally be completed, it will mean that thousands upon thousands of tourists will pass through this city annually.

After the meeting officers were elected from the various counties through which the highway will pass between Columbus and Pittsburgh and Attorney A. A. Stasel was honored by being elected vice president to represent Lackawanna county.

Bowser Captures Title and Trophy In Sensational Match With Turner; New Champion Given Great Ovation

"Hail the King". All Newark today was paying homage to a new champion of the middleweight wrestlers of the United States and Canada—Paul Bowser, the local pride, who last night defeated Joe Turner, the world's champion, at the Auditorium and brought to Newark for the first time in its history—a championship.

The bout which was the most spectacular event ever held in this city, was attended by more than 1,200 men, women and children. The old walls of Memorial hall never witnessed a more exciting nor noisier demonstration than that which reigned for five minutes following the last fall. The crowd was wild.

A number of fans seated at the ringside placed the new champion upon their shoulders and paraded around the stage, others who could not get close to Bowser, threw their hats into the air, shouting themselves hoarse. Women screamed, some cried and the wildest disorder prevailed for several minutes.

While all this was going on, there was one man in that vast assemblage whom the crowd evaded as though by common consent.—Joe Turner, the vanquished. The man who for more than six years defended his belt against all comers, had been beaten into submission by a younger man.

No longer was he the warrior, who in the past, had struck terror to the hearts of his opponents. No longer did the crowd applaud his work. He was through. He had tried his endurance to the limit, had resorted to every trick known to the game, had resisted and fought that bulk of super-human energy pitted against him, but after all he was forced down to defeat. Weary at heart and exhausted by the terrific grueling he had received, he staggered to his dressing room—alone.

Later, when the demonstration had subsided, Turner returned to the stage and acknowledged that he had met his master and that the better man won. He said that he had been in the game for a good many years, and would now retire for a time and take a rest. Also that if he ever thought he could come back, he would make another try for the belt, but that at present he did not want a return match.

Bowser the new champion, wearing the handsome Police Gazette belt, which his friends buckled on him made a brief speech in which he thanked the fans for their loyalty to him. No longer was he the fighting, snarling, rushing demon, of a few minutes before, but just a kid, with a kid's delight when he receives something most pleasing to his fancy.

For many years Paul Bowser had dreamed of the day when he would crown the height of his career with the championship. He worked hard and faithfully for the supreme test, had met and defeated a man of most powerful endurance and had beat him at his own game. He wanted to talk to the crowd, but most of all he was thinking of the woman who had sat in the box shouting encouragement to him throughout the contest—his wife—and the telegram that he would send to that proud mother and father in Pennsylvania, who were waiting for the verdict.

He started to talk, but the crowd in its excitement had no ears, so he just beamed his pleasure.

A few minutes past eight o'clock, Attorney Charles W. Montgomery opened the show with an address on the merits of wrestling and requesting the fans to maintain order and not to smoke or make uncomplimentary remarks about the participants.

He was followed by H. H. Scott, who introduced Referee Herbert Webber and William and Kenneth Tuschler, the local boys who appeared in the curtain-raiser.

Bowser and Turner when they appeared were greeted with a great ovation. Referee Webber called them to the center of the mat for final instruction. A few minutes later the men shook hands and the bout was on.

CHICAGO FIVE TAKES LEAD AT TOLEDO

JOSE GOMEZ CLUB WITH SCORE OF 2864 TOPS THE LIST.

Cleveland Man Elected President of Congress and Grand Rapids Gets Next Meeting.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Toledo, March 11.—Bowlers are predicting that few of the leaders in American Bowling congress tournament will ride through today without being displaced. Star players from St. Louis, Buffalo, Chicago, Milwaukee and Toledo are billed for tonight.

The Jose Gomez club, whose 2864 landed them in first place in the weeks yesterday are figured to land well up in the money.

Hunter and Hendricks of Grand Rapids, still top the doubles with 1252 while Pete Brunnett of Cleveland is high in the singles with 660. Among the brilliant performers listed to roll in evening today are Bob Wagner, Phil Wolf, Joe Langmayer, Ed Pfeiffer and Joe Vlachsa of Chicago.

William Agnew of Cleveland was elected president of the American

THE NEW CHAMPION.

Paul Bowser the new world's champion, was born on a farm in Kittanning, Pa., May 26, 1888, and spent the early days of his life on the farm. Nine years ago he entered the wrestling game as a professional and during that time has engaged in over 500 matches. He came to Newark several months ago and revived the grappling sport. Since coming here he has met some of the best middleweights in the game and has put the city of Newark on the map of good clean sports.

moved rapidly around the ring. The champion appeared cautious and frequently ran off the mat to evade Bowser. After nine minutes had been tolled off by the timer, Webber brought the man back to the center of the mat and warned Turner to stay on the canvas. Turner turned his head to remonstrate and there was a flash. With the quickness of a cat leaping upon its prey, Bowser was across the stage. Before Turner could guard against the rush, he was picked up above Bowser's head and thrown to the mat with a crash. He landed upon the back of his neck and the local man dropped upon him. Webber slapped Bowser on the back.

The fall was so quick and unexpected that the crowd did not realize at once that Bowser had won it. Turner lay on the mat fully a minute after the fall rubbing his head and then staggered to his dressing room. This was without a doubt the turning point of the match and gave Paul the advantage. The fall was secured by a double leg lock.

After a ten minutes intermission, which was filled by a musical program by the Auditorium orchestra, the gladiators resumed the argument.

The next 43 1-2 minutes was replete with spectacular work. Bowser was on the defensive most of the time and each administered considerable punishment. Bowser as usual receiving the most of it, due to his clear work. Turner's torturing tactics annoyed the crowd and swung what few supporters he did have over to Bowser. Working around slow and cautious, the champion, after forty-three minutes, secured an arm scissors lock and crotch hold and by beating Paul's head to the mat, won the second fall.

During the intermission that followed Bowser recuperated quickly, but the pace had been a telling one for the champ. Bowser assumed the Bowling congress, which held its annual meeting at the Boody House yesterday. Expected friction over some of the amendments offered failed to materialize, the changes being less drastic than were anticipated by the delegates. The chief amendments proved to be the extension of the secretary and treasurer's terms of office from one to ten years.

Both Abe Langtry of Milwaukee and Frank L. Pangeloup of Chicago were re-elected to the secretaryship and treasurer's position for the lengthened term, additional remuneration being paid to both men. Langtry's fees were raised to approximately $3,000 a year, making his office practically a permanent one throughout the year.

Grand Rapids landed the 1917 tournament. St. Louis being the only rival bidder, but withdrawing when the Furniture City showed unexpected strength. Buffalo, South Bend, Peoria and St. Louis all extended invitations to the congress for 1918, no official action being taken in regard to their bids. Medals for high scores were also awarded.

NEWARK WINS TWO GAMES OF FIRST SET

PLAIN CITY AND CUMBERLAND FALL BEFORE ATTACK AT DELAWARE.

Meets Portsmouth in Today's Game and Hard Battle Will be the Natural Result.

Delaware, March 11.—With seven teams remaining undefeated, the second round in the elimination series of the second division of the Ohio High school basketball tournament, in which 28 teams of southern Ohio are battling for honors at Ohio Wesleyan University gymnasium, was completed last night.

Starting early yesterday morning the young athletes have been contesting throughout the entire day evening and they resumed play Saturday morning. Teams which last night have an undefeated record will start the third round this morning, which will be followed by the semi-finals and finals to determine honors among teams of this division. These quintets who have lowered the colors of all opponents are Marietta, Delaware, Pleasant Hill, Stivers High of Dayton, Bellaire, Portsmouth and Newark. Marietta will be matched with Delaware, Stivers will oppose Bellaire, while Newark and Portsmouth will battle today.

Judging from the first day's play the Marietta five appears to have the edge on the remaining teams, although Newark and Portsmouth are not to be underestimated. The Marietta quintet is far below the championship five which represented that school two years ago when the championship of the state was captured. Newark's play has been erratic, although it may get going and play havoc at the unexpected minute. Stivers High of Dayton may also cut a figure in today's play.

In the first elimination series, the most interesting game staged was that of West High of Columbus and Marietta. This game proved a source of regret, as had not these teams been unfortunate enough to draw each other, both would have probably been in the finals competing for the championship of this division. Each quintet exhibited a splendid brand of basket ball, a representation of which would have probably defeated any other team during the first round.

Defending the Border.

The President's order to send United States troops into Mexico for the purpose of capturing or killing the bandits who invaded New Mexico and wrought death and destruction this week is universally approved.

If the Carranza government in Mexico is unable to prevent such raids as occurred at Columbus it is not only the privilege but the duty of the American government to defend its people and its country by following and punishing the marauders even when they cross the Mexican border. Leading members of congress of both of the leading political parties endorse the action taken. The purpose of sending troops into Mexico is not to interfere with the sovereignty of the Mexican people and not to grab land but it is to protect American lives, property and rights.

Representative Ashbrook who stood firmly by the President in the recent European controversy is quoted in the morning dispatches as having said: "Under the circumstances, there is nothing else to be done except to send our troops after Villa."

The New York Globe in commenting upon the Mexican situation recalls the fact that when Andrew Jackson was in command along the Florida border (Florida then being Spanish) he crossed the border and seized and hanged two Indian chiefs who had committed murder on our side and occupied Pensacola to protect our frontier. The Jackson precedent has applicability in the present juncture.

Why doesn't Governor Willis use his executive influence to compel Secretary of State Charles C. Hydebrant to comply with the law requiring that official to certify to the auditor of state the record of competitive bidding for the automobile tags used by the state? It is openly charged that the governor's floor leader in the senate was to profit $12,000 through this contract. The people do not want bickering talk from Willis. They want action.

It is now estimated that the valuation of the railroads will cost $50,000,000, and it will furnish a lot of valuable information that everyone knew before.

It is not known that any of the boys have declined to join the poultry clubs on the ground that the crowing of the roosters would disturb the neighbors.

The prediction that skirts are again to be long promises to give the street sweeping department the assistance it has lacked for some time.

There is a widespread feeling among the motorists that it is wicked for the war to continue and keep the price of gasoline so high.

Many of the colleges are raising their tuition fees, which is undoubtedly necessary owing to the high cost of athletic grounds.

resolution, twelve were Republicans. Of these twelve Republicans four are aspirants for the Presidency.

March 7 the House of Representatives voted on a similar resolution, that resolution marked the most critical period in our relations with Germany. On the final roll-call 102 Republicans voted against the President and for the Kaiser. Among these 102 Republicans were Mann, Cannon, McKinley, Hill, Rodenberg, Sulloway and all the Republican Old Guard leaders in the House. With them voted five Progressives. A majority of the Republicans and nearly all the Progressives voted that American citizens forced to travel on armed merchantmen should receive no protection from the United States Government.

We submit this record to the Republican critics of the President. Are they against him because he has not been vigorous enough in his conduct of our foreign relations, or because he is too vigorous? Do they condemn him for being too weak in defense of American rights, or too firm?

They cannot have it both ways. They cannot applaud Root and at the same time applaud the majority of the Republicans of the House. They must choose one side or the other, or else admit that their attacks on the President in this crisis are dishonest, insincere and unpatriotic.

The Winged Lie.

(Chicago Herald.)

A Berlin dispatch says that President Wilson's alleged statement that American entrance into the world war would have the effect of ending it created no sensation, for it merely confirmed the powerful body of German public opinion in the long-fixed idea that Wilson wants war and is determined to force a break.

Thus we so illustrated once more the power and danger of the winged lie. This baseless rumor, retailed in the United States Senate and denounced and repudiated as soon as it was confirmed German public opinion in a long-fixed and hostile opinion. It has rendered the relations between the two nations more difficult. It has made the task both of Washington and Berlin all the harder.

It generally takes some trouble to get the truth in its entirety to Berlin and a good deal more trouble to get it before the German people. There are numerous obstacles in the way—among them the meagerness of means of communication. But no such impediments exist in the case of a damaging and a dangerous falsehood. No sooner is it said than it takes wings and goes over land and sea upon its mission of evil.

Moving the Crops.

One of the singular financial features of the war developed in connection with financing the movement of crops. Europe had loaned the funds for this purpose autumn after autumn. The war and the consequent borrowing by European belligerents closed this source of monetary supplies. It was logically forecasted in 1914 that the United States would suffer severe stringency in monetary markets. Yet the harvests of grain that year and last, though the largest harvests ever garnered in this country, were financed by ourselves without the slightest sign of strain.—Spokane Spokesman Review.

Secretary Baker.

Mr. Newton D. Baker doesn't know anything about the army, it is said, but he is a good lawyer. A criticism which would have applied with equal force to Stanton, to Root, to Taft and to every other great secretary of war. Experience has shown that the war department needs a lawyer at its head, and no man has made a complete success as secretary of war who was not a lawyer.—New York World.

A Welcome Intruder.

The man in the next flat was pounding on the wall.

"Look here!" he cried. "I can't sleep with that kid yelling like that. If you don't make him stop I will."

"Come right in," said the baby's father. "You'll be as welcome as the flowers in spring."—Muskegon Times.

A Rarity.

A great leader is a man who can take two women out to dinner and keep the conversation off of new spring clothes and surgical operations.—Kansas City Star.

What It Means.

The "obey" clause in the marriage ceremony merely means that when the husband takes a twenty-dollar bill out of his pocket and commands his wife to take it, she must immediately comply—and she does.—Houston Post.

Autos and Mortgages.

Common report has had it, for several years, that some people become so carried away with the idea of owning automobiles that they mortgage their homes in order to buy these machines. No wonder, then, that the case of a man who recently sold his automobile in order to lift a mortgage on his home, should have aroused no end of comment in his neighborhood. There are among his acquaintances some, of course, who think he should be placed in charge of a conservator, but the general opinion is that, while somewhat in advance of his times, and perhaps eccentric, he may be trusted to manage his affairs.—Christian Science Monitor.

Rippling Rhymes

March Winds.

Oh, March is bad and boisterous, and rude and rough and roisterous, she's like a dippy squaw; she howls around us frightfully, and blows our hats off spitefully, the worst you ever saw. And as our lids go fluttering, the language we are uttering is the air around us tainted; of course it's rather rude in us to use oaths plaudibly, but then we are not saints. We paw around and swear again, and long for summer air again, for breezes warm and sweet; we think we'll then be happier, but doubtless we'll be scrappier, when summer brings its heat. Our language will be vigorous, when our sore legs are chiggerous, when ants crawl up our backs; we'll still be cussing drearily, while we are swatting, wearily, the flies that stick like wax. Our discontent's inherited; we hand out roasts unmerited, to all that comes along; instead of smiling merrily, we yelp and say, "Yea, verily, whatever is wrong." Man ought to face things cheerfully; complaining always, tearfully, betrays the spineless rube; man's head is largely ivory and he for sense must strive or he becomes a hopeless boob.

Hash.

Hash is the most Taciturn of all the Foods known to Man. Its inscrutable Exterior gives no hint of its True Inwardness. It seldom Boasts of its Ancestry and we never know whether it has descended from a Thoroughbred Holstein or a Mongrel Cur. We only know that it has Descended. And we eat it in the full knowledge that we are Throwing another Responsibility on Nature and Blindly trust to her help in case the Chances are against us.

GET RID OF HUMORS

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the Medicine to Take—Makes Pure Blood.

Dry, moist, scaly, tetter, pimples, boils, and other eruption come from humors, which may be either inherited, or acquired through defective digestion and assimilation.

To treat these eruptions with drying medicines is dangerous.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old reliable medicine, helps the system to discharge the humors, and improves the digestion and assimilation.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla from your druggist. It may be confidently relied upon to do its work. It purifies the blood, tones the stomach, and builds up the whole system. It goes to the roots of diseases, and its beneficial results are permanent. It acts like a magnet in the system. Remember to ask for Hood's Sarsaparilla, because nothing else acts like it and nothing else can take its place.

It would be entertaining to see how quickly those pacifists who oppose preparedness would get cold feet in the face of a foreign invasion.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Cold feet in the face! How pleasant must have been the editorial path that led up to this observation. How sweetly accented, as it were, by the rippling cadences of that beverage for which Tennessee is so justly famous.

BETTER THAN SPANKING.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today, if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Paralyzes and removes the worms, improves digestion and general health of child. Continue giving Kickapoo Worm Killer until all signs of worms are gone. 25c at your Druggist.

Weekly Market Summary (Associated Press Telegram)
New York, March 11.—Domestic notices and European complications as well as the Mexican situation developed new and more acute phases.
The action of this government to take drastic measures against the lawless element in the Mexican republic to the extent of sending an army of 20,000 men into the border region, the way to much conjecture.
Judging from the course of stocks most affected by the action of the federal administration was received with undisguised satisfaction. Southern Pacific, Mexican Petroleum and American Locomotive, all of which have important interests south of the Rio Grande rose spiritedly, but some of the most representative issues were stronger and more active in the preceding week, which witnessed a severe purging of extended speculative accounts. The average adjustment of quoted values which followed the period of liquidation made for a somber technical position. Rails were again back in vogue, however, while stocks and metals of various sorts made new records in response to increased dividend distributions.
United States Steel was almost the sole important exception to the higher trend, although recovering several points to its recent minimum. Nevertheless the course was uncertain. In view of the policy of further expansion by the directors and the remarkable gains in the price of the stock, which attained an unparalleled figure.
Exchange on Germany fell to the lowest rate known, remittances to London and the continent were subject to variable figures.
Anglo-French war bonds were again under pressure, but a fraction above the recent low record.

Mutt and Jeff in College.
 Mutt and Jeff in College, fifth in the series of cartoon comedies on Bud Fisher's inimitable characters, which have been adapted to the musical comedy stage by Gus Hill has proven to be the most successful since its initial performance five years ago. Mutt and Jeff in College offers an entertainment distinctly different in every way from its four predecessors. Comedy is the main essence, with music and girls as a diversion. It is doubtful if so many hearty laughs have ever before been combined in one evening's entertainment. Our heroes are treated to the pleasures and profits of an education, in return for their services as foot ball players. There are astonishingly hilarious results. The show is better described as a riot of fun which begins with the rise of the curtain and continues incessantly for two and one half hours. It is coming to the Auditorium, next Wednesday, March 15.

Symphony Orchestra.
 Secure your tickets early for Cincinnati Symphony Concert. There is a great demand for single admission tickets for the second concert of the Women's Music Club series, so secure your tickets and have them reserved at Auditorium Box Office, Wednesday a. m., March 15 at 10 o'clock.

This is a rare opportunity for the people of Newark and a capacity audience is looked for by the club. Phone your orders for a single admission ticket to Mrs. W. W. Davis, President of the Club or Mrs. Winifred Ferguson, Chairman Concert Committee.

At the Gem Sunday.
 If you are looking for excitement, you will find it in the Mutual Masterpiece, De Luxe Edition, "The Idol of the Stage," now showing at the Gem theatre.

If you are looking for good, clean entertainment, or for a study in psychology, or a picture of life behind the footlights, go to see the same picture. You will find them all in the one.

"The Idol of the Stage" is a five reel photodrama, produced by Richard Garrick at the Gaumont company's winter studios in Jacksonville, Fla.

Malcolm Williams, a very well known legitimate stage actor, plays the lead, and is supported by clever Lucille Taft, and a splendid cast.

The Shrine of Happiness.
 Pathe announces The Shrine of Happiness, another Gold Rooster play in Pathecolor. This subject, produced for Pathe in the California studios of the Balboa company, features

Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, Auditorium, Thursday Evening, Mar. 16

Jackie Saunders, William Conklin and Paul Gilmore. The picture was colored in the Pathe Paris studios as was The Beloved Vagabond. Paul Gilmore is one of the best known actors on the screen today. Jackie Saunders is known as the "Maude Adams of the screen," and her emotional artistry reaches heights seldom registered on the screen. The story, noteworthy for its simplicity, has been picturized with a straightforwardness that makes it pleasing at all times.

Dave Scott, a wealthy mine owner, is killed. His daughter Marie goes to her father's old friend, Richard Clark, knowing that he will take care of her interests. Clark and his grown son, Ted become attached to Marie. Innocent in manner, she sees no necessity for concealing her preference for the elder Clark. In time, Ted's attachment culminates in a proposal which is rejected. Ted accuses his father of standing in his way, and the father makes Marie promise that she will accept Ted. A few minutes before the time set for the ceremony a note from Ted explains that he realizes the love that exists between Marie and his father and rather than exact the sacrifice, he has left his father's home, leaving them free to marry. A beautiful colored picture, sure to create much favorable comment.

See it at the Grand next Monday and Tuesday.

Alhambra Wednesday and Thursday.
 At event of real importance to motion picture patrons will be the return to the screen of the Alhambra on Wednesday and Thursday of Clara Kimball Young, the World Film Corporation's peerless star, in a powerful photodrama, "The Yellow Passport."

The story of this big picture deals with a Russian girl, who, in order to defend herself against unscrupulous enemies, pretends to be a woman of the town and obtains from the police one of the yellow passports issued to such women. Scene upon scene of vivid drama builds the interest of the spectator to a pitch of excitement and intense feeling aroused by a motion picture.

Alhambra Tonight.
 Exclusive Paramount program. Jesse L. Lasky presents the popular screen artist Blanche Sweet in "The Blacklist," a picture well worth your while. Sunday comes that popular stage classic, "The Rosary," starring Kathryn Williams produced by Selig red seal on the V. L. S. E. program. A wonderful picture should be seen by both young and old.

Monday and Tuesday comes the world wide lovable artist, Marguerite Clark in her latest screen production, "Out of the Drifts." A Paramount picture in every detail. Watch the Alhambra program.

At the Kozy Theatre.
 It's your last chance tonight to see "The Unbroken Road," a big feature from life Photo Film Corporation, presenting Mary Nash supported by Wm. H. Looker and Alexander Gaden. Many have pronounced this the finest picture ever seen on a screen. "The Rock of Ages," which is shown in the big feature is one of the finest things ever filmed. The music accompanying this appeals to the tenderest emotions and makes it the most effectively beautiful and weird. Don't miss seeing this tonight.

A specially fine program is arranged for Sunday at the Kozy. The management has succeeded in securing "Charlie Chaplin—A Woman," which is said to be one of Chaplin's best. Besides this favorite will be shown a splendid Knickerbocker feature presenting Jackie Saunders in "A Daughter of the Woods."

"Protect Us" At Mazda.
 The paper for "Protect Us," the big feature running at the Mazda today and Sunday is attracting great attention and a big business is looked for. This powerful sermon in photography tells why girls go wrong and points out some vital truths to parents.

Battle Cry of Peace.
 The return engagement of the Battle Cry of Peace, which is to be shown at the Auditorium Sunday afternoon and evening will doubtless be attended by a capacity crowd, the same, as it was when shown here several weeks ago.

The Howe-Ziegler orchestra from Columbus will be here to consolidate with the Auditorium orchestra, and this insures another rare musical treat, for patrons, as the music, especially written for this film, is exceptionally pleasing.

The story is well known is one that is filled with intensity and shows the suffering attending the people of a country at war. Too much in praise of The Battle Cry of Peace as a picture, teaching the lesson of preparedness, intended can be said of The Battle Cry of Peace.

Not Gray Hairs but Tired Eyes

PAIN GONE! RUB SORE, RHEUMATIC ACHING JOINTS

Rub pain away with a small trial bottle of old, penetrating "St. Jacob's Oil."

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism. It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacob's Oil" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain and distress. "St. Jacob's Oil" is a harmless rheumatism liniment which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache and neuralgia.

Linger up! Get a small trial bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacob's Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment, you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

SAYS HOT WATER WASHES POISONS FROM THE LIVER

Everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it, before breakfast.

To feel as fine as the proverbial fiddle, we must keep the liver washed clean, almost every morning, to prevent its sponge-like pores from clogging with indigestible material, sour bile and poisonous toxins, says a noted physician.

If you get headaches, it's your liver. If you catch cold easily, it's your liver. If you wake up with a bad taste, furrowed tongue, nasty breath or stomach becomes rancid, it's your liver. Sallow skin, muddy complexion, watery eyes all denote liver uncleanliness. Your liver is the most important organ of the body. Few know its function or how to release the dammed-up body waste, bile and toxins. Most folks resort to violent calomel, which is a dangerous, salivating chemical which can only be used occasionally because it accumulates in the tissues, also attacks the bones.

Every man and woman, sick or well, should drink each morning before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, to wash from the liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, the poisons, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and refreshing the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Limestone phosphate does not restrict the diet like calomel, because it can not salivate, for it is harmless and you can eat anything afterwards. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, and any pharmacist will sell you a quarter pound, which is sufficient for a demonstration of how hot water and limestone phosphate cleans, stimulates and freshens the liver, keeping you feeling fit day in and day out.

Dangers of Draft.
 Drafts feel best when we are hot and perspiring, just when they are most dangerous and the result is Neuralgia, Stiff Neck, Sore Muscles or sometimes an attack of Rheumatism. In such cases apply Sloan's Liniment. It stimulates circulation to the sore and painful part. The blood flows freely and in a short time the stiffness and pain leaves. Those suffering from Neuralgia or Neuralgic Headache will find one or two applications of Sloan's Liniment will give grateful relief. The agonizing pain gives way to a tingling sensation of comfort and warmth and quiet rest and sleep is possible. Good for Neuritis too. Price 25c at your Druggist.

Acid in Stomach Sours the Food

Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid Is Cause of Indigestion.

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion is nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation, then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch gas, or have heartburn, flatulence, waterbrash, or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast while it is effervescent, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

Colds Quickly Relieved.
 Many people cough and cough—from the beginning of Fall right through to Spring. Others get cold after cold. Take Dr. King's New Discovery and you will get almost immediate relief. It checks your cold, stops the racking, rasping, tissue-tearing cough, heals the inflammation, soothes the raw tubes. Easy to take, Antiseptic and Healing. Get a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery today. "It is certainly a great medicine and I keep a bottle of it continually on hand" writes W. C. Jesseman, Franconia, N. H. LEGAL NOTICE.

THE WALL PAPERS

We are showing, characterize the Edmiston Store. We are no content with showing just WALL PAPER. We are not satisfied to accept wall paper as selected by the jobber, but we make it a rule to purchase direct from the best manufacturers, thus enabling us to offer exclusive designs and colorings, meaning that the very latest and best are shown in Newark simultaneously with their being placed upon the market. Each season shows progress both in designs and colors acceptable to the demands of the day. You will find our stock wonderfully complete in all these new things in the very lowest priced papers up to the highest. We are not satisfied with showing just 5c and 10c papers, although we have the largest stock of these, shown any place in this part of the country, but we want our customers to have the opportunity of seeing a complete line of the best paper the market affords, and at the lowest prices.

SHORTAGE OF PRINTERS' INK IS THREATENED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

New York, March 11.—Manufacturers of newspaper ink here, have written to the interstate commerce commission at Washington suggesting that steps be taken to prevent a serious shortage of printers ink which may affect New York newspapers. They say that the shortage has been caused by freight congestion and an embargo placed by some of the railways upon carload lots of the material used in making the ink. They ask that carbon black, the base of printers ink, be put in a class with perishable freight and be allowed to come through promptly from West Virginia.

Some of the manufacturers asserted that the newspapers and cheaper magazines would suffer if some way were not found to get the carbon black through the embargo. One ink maker obtained a carload of it, by ordering it to be shipped through by express.

I received a very flattering and complimentary vote four years ago and was fourth man in a very spirited contest, there being twenty-three candidates in the field. My friends throughout the county have urged me to again become a candidate and I feel in deference to their wishes and in view of the fine vote I received when I ran before that I should again seek the nomination.

Newark High School Wins Two Debates; Mt. Vernon And Zanesville Are Victims

Newark High School was doubly victorious in the eighth annual debate of the Central Ohio Debating league which was held on Friday. The Newark negative team won the debate from the Zanesville affirmative, at the Newark High School by a vote of 2 to 1, and the Newark affirmative team defeated the Mt. Vernon negative at Mt. Vernon by 2 to 1. Zanesville, which had won both debates in the two years previous and was considered the most dangerous opponent, lost both debates, Mt. Vernon winning from them at Zanesville. The teams were coached by Prof. Cockayne, and much credit is due him for their success.

The Zanesville team was accompanied by a number of the students, and the High School auditorium was filled, every seat being taken. The Newark High School girls occupied the balcony and wore the school colors of red and white. Both the Zanesville and Newark yells were given under the direction of the cheer leaders at every opportunity.

The presiding officer was Hon. William E. Miller, who announced the question, "Resolved, that Woman Suffrage Should be Adopted in the State of Ohio," and introduced the speakers.

Bernard Mast was the first speaker for the affirmative and stated that woman's suffrage was not a new topic, but that each day the need of the ballot for women became more imperative. Woman's most important factor in the home is not the requirement of the ballot to protect her home, for when she secures it all civic regulation will receive her attention, and better measures will be adopted. It is true that of late man made government has given a few crumbs in the way of legislation to placate the woman, but she does not want to have a say indirectly, she wants to have a part in naming the government's representatives. "We need a woman's voice in the home, but we need her voice more in the government."

The speaker stated that in a state where suffrage has been recently adopted, divorces previous to the giving of the vote to women numbered 37, since that time they have been reduced to 517. He also claimed that women of doubtful character would not vote, as has been proven in previous elections, where the first class residential districts give the highest vote.

Robert Swingle was the first Newark speaker and stated that suffrage was no petty issue. He admitted that there were evils existing that needed remedying, but refused to acknowledge that giving the ballot to women was the remedy, rather he stated, it would but increase the evils. He attacked the stand taken by suffragists, that suffrage was out just, and asserted that it would be unjust to place the greater burden of governmental problems upon woman's shoulders. There are three forms of representative government, individual, majority and community. The first is impossible, the second impracticable and the last has been adopted in the United States. In this representation woman is ably represented by man, and in reply to the plea that man is not interested in woman's representations, the speaker asked to be shown one interest of woman that did not affect man.

Glen Stimmel, speaking for the question, debated that suffrage was just. It is but just that woman should be equal to man, it is but just that she be given the privilege of making her laws, but women are now in the classes of criminals, imbeciles and idiots. Men of high position favor equal suffrage. In order to have a true democracy all should have a voice, and woman is especially interested in school reform laws, and other civic matters.

Expediency, another phase advanced by suffragists as a reason for their having the vote was possessed a very pleasing stage presence and who had a convincing delivery. He admitted that a few good things might result from equal suffrage, but that the evils would outweigh the good. "Women's suffrage does not represent progress," stated the speaker. He then enumerated the many progressive laws, beneficial to women which have been passed in Ohio, told of the work of the General Federation of Women's club and like organizations, to prove his contention that woman can and has gained more consideration by indirect representation than they could, had they had a direct voice in the manipulation of the laws. "The ballot belongs to the factor that yields force, and while we do not wholly accept what is implied in the saying, 'Might makes right,' still we do say that might must exist to make right secure. Man's moral reform will never be secured as has been shown, by legislation, but will be secured by education."

Edgar Norris, easily the star speaker for the affirmative, was enthusiastically cheered and his delivery fully merited his reception. He concluded for his side with a summary of the points advanced by his colleagues. He told what a success equal suffrage had been in the states where it had been adopted, and how twelve states now had it. He also enumerated the countries which had adopted it as a whole and of others that had municipal suffrage. Colorado has the best law, and has secured many reforms. "Why should not a woman vote, because of physical deficiency? No. Because of mental deficiency? No. Because of lack of moral character? No. Then the only reason that can be is just because she is a woman."

A woman's question was presented from a woman's viewpoint by Miss Elmon Johnson, in a most admirable way. Miss Johnson has an appealing speaking voice and her enunciation was clear and her debating points well defined. She forcibly stated that women do not want the ballot, that statistics in Ohio proved that but three per cent of the women want to vote and that the other ninety-seven per cent are either indifferent or opposed to it. "Woman is essentially a home maker and home is the unit of society, and she rules there. In the education of her children she has representation, and the home presents enough problems without burdening her with more. Reform was never secured for the government by the ballot."

The Newark speakers were exceptionally clever in rebuttal and Miss Johnson advanced facts to show that England, the suffragist's home, had not profited, and that English suffragists stated America without the voting of the women possessed the more admirable laws.

The alternatives were Linda Brueggeman, for Zanesville, and Wendell Postle for Newark.

While the High School orchestra rendered a few numbers, the judges, Prof. Clarence Perkins, Ohio State University, Prof. R. B. Allen, Kenyon college, Prof. Clyde O. Ruggles, Ohio State University, considered the points gained by the speakers, and Mr. Miller then announced that Newark had won the decision 2 to 1. Immediately the class yells and yells for the speakers were given and Mr. Elwyn Davies was presented with the class colors in appreciation of his work.

Newark also won at Mt. Vernon, in the affirmative discussion, the members of the team being Donald Coulter, Miss Grace Kussmaul, Edward Pearsall and Forrest Keckley, alternate.

The Columbus Dispatch for Saturday, March 4, carried the following appreciative review of a new book, "American Writers: An Outline," that Professor Raymond W. Pence has prepared for use as a text book in his classes in American literature. While printed originally for use in Denison University, the book has been in such demand that a second printing has been necessary. It has already been adopted for use as a text book in some of the English classes at Ohio State University.
